

EKU Writing Intensive Requirement

HELP SHEET

Revised January 2017

1. The Writing Intensive (WI) course requirement is a university level graduation requirement.
 - a. To fulfill the WI requirement students must pass a “W” course at ECU; or
 - b. Students may fulfill the WI requirement with a transfer course that is articulated as Writing Intensive.
 - 1) Transfer courses not already articulated as writing intensive may be submitted for evaluation to Jennifer Wies, Associate Provost.
 - 2) No exception form is required for a course evaluation.
 - 3) A course description must be submitted for the evaluation.
 - 4) If the course description does not clearly describe the course as writing intensive, a syllabus will be required.
 - 5) Jennifer Wies will communicate the articulation decision to the Transfer Center so that all students who complete or have completed the relevant transfer course will receive WI credit.
2. Exceptions to the WI requirement will be granted only when a reasonable alternative cannot be found.
 - a. Requests for exceptions should be submitted to Jennifer Wies, Associate Provost.

For more information, contact:

Jennifer Wies, Associate Provost

jennifer.wies@ecu.edu

(859) 622-6208

Coates 111