

Eastern Kentucky University Interpreter Outreach Program

Proudly Presents

Linsay Darnall Jr.

From his roots in Polk, Nebraska, to national advocacy, Linsay Darnall Jr. has dedicated his life to empowering the Deaf community. A Gallaudet alum, he has led organizations like the Nebraska Association of the Deaf and co-founded the Nebraska Deaf Heritage Museum. His work with Deaf youth, theater, and accessibility has earned him multiple awards—including the Spirit of NAD Award and the title of Admiral of The Great Navy of Nebraska!

"Interpreting Strategies for Classroom Instructions on Social Studies and History"

March 14, 2025

1:00 PM - 4:00 PM

Kentucky School for the Deaf at Grow Hall

303 S. 2nd Street

Danville, KY 40422

Limited Enrollment: Kentucky K-12 Interpreters and Educators

Join us for a specialized workshop designed for educators and ASL interpreters to improve the interpretation of Social Studies and History curricula for Deaf students. Learn strategies to accurately translate and sign complex historical concepts, ensuring clarity and engagement for all learners.

What You'll Gain:

- ✓ Techniques for interpreting historical events and social studies content
- ✓ Strategies to enhance comprehension and classroom engagement
- ✓ Tools to adapt lessons for diverse learning needs

This workshop is perfect for interpreters looking to build confidence and proficiency in academic settings.

Don't miss this opportunity to develop essential skills and support student success!

• FREE!

• 3 RID Professional Development Hours (.3 CEUs) Total

• Presented in ASL

Eastern Kentucky University

Eastern Kentucky University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and Educational Institution

For workshop anti-discrimination policies, please visit our website at:

eku.edu/aslie/outreach-policies-accommodations