SEN 1819

A Resolution of Goals for Student Rights Committee 2018-2019

- Whereas, The Student Rights Committee is dedicated to providing clarity to the students of ECU in regard to their rights on and off campus while enrolled at Eastern Kentucky University,
- Whereas, The Student Rights Committee is also motivated to provide the student body with a safe learning/living environment as well as accommodating student's individual needs,
- Whereas, In accomplishing both of these tasks the Student Rights Committee will remain an open and available device to students, and will also conduct a safety walk to be attended by all members of the Senate and participating faculty to ensure appropriate safety measures are taken on campus as well as to provide accommodations to student's with disabilities,
- Whereas, The Student Rights Committee will draft legislation to further reflect the increasing demand for student safety, increasing clarity concerning the rights of individual students, and provide those with disabilities the proper accommodations to better not only their academic environment, but their overall experience at ECU,
- Resolved, The Student Rights Committee is dedicated to these principles and will continue to be a representative of the student body, but also an outlet and a voice for the Senate in communicating with students,
