A Resolution of Recognition for Former “Interim” Chief Justice Reanne Melhorn

Whereas, The Eastern Kentucky University Student Senate takes time to recognize its members that are graduating, even if they did jump ship for a different branch; and,

Whereas, Reanne Melhorn, after an arduous career as the Student Senate clerk under the verbose reign of Sebastian Torres, left Senate for Student Court; and,

Whereas, Reanne would often remind people how to correctly spell her name and frequently remind people that she was a member of EKU’s Choirs by vocalizing at random times, even if there was a class next door where the teacher was lecturing; and,

Whereas, Reanne had thoroughly celebrated her birthday with Chair Tillman and Sergeant At Arms Herr. So thoroughly in fact that Chair Tillman will forever be reminded of that night every time she drives her car; and,

Whereas, Reanne will maintain the record for “Longest ‘Interim’ Student Court Chief Justice” for the foreseeable future. A title with which she served in greater capacity than some of those who were actually appointed into this role, even taking the time to update the bylaws for said branch, even if she did have a ‘court secretary’ from another branch who had to volunteer their time to do so.

Whereas, Reanne will be sorely missed by both Student Senate and Student Court; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Eastern Kentucky University Student Senate record its appreciation and gratitude for Reanne, even if she did leave this branch; and be it further,

Resolved, That the Student Senate wishes her well in her future endeavors with her Bachelors of Music, with a concentration in Music Industry, and whatever you can do with that degree.
